

Annual SC.GMIS Project Management Workshop

Please join us for our annual SC.GMIS Project Management workshop! As with all of the SC.GMIS workshops, this workshop is free to the attendees due to the generosity of our wonderful sponsors! Anyone who is employed by a government agency, or is contracted to do work for a government agency, is invited to attend.
Contractors require written permission from their SC.GMIS Member Agency to attend (email is fine).

Register now! Limited space available!

When: July 26, 2007

Where: SC State Museum
Gervais Street
Columbia, SC

Cost: Free for SC.GMIS members
$10 for non-SC.GMIS members

Registration: Jenny Renedo (renedoj@sctax.org)

Questions: Lisa Phipps (LPhipps@retirement.sc.gov)

Thanks to Our Sponsor!

Agenda

(subject to change)

8:30 – 9:00 am	Networking, Coffee, and Danish A good time to make new friends, renew old acquaintances, or make new project management contacts.
9:00 – 9:10 “Sponsor’s Moment”	Barry Newkirk, Intellectual Capital Thanks Barry! We really appreciate the support that ICAP provides to both SC.GMIS and its member agencies!
9:10 – 10:00 am	The Good, the Bad, and the Ugly -- Your Lessons Learned! Please bring your stories of how projects went well, went bad, or were just plain ugly.
10:00 – 11:00am “Building a Bridge – Just Another Project?”	Charles Dwyer, SC Department of Transportation Listen to how they designed and built the Charleston Ravenel Bridge on time, on budget, and with a stellar safety record. How does this apply to IT Projects? Come see how you can apply similar methods to your project madness! There will be a test...so come prepared to take notes and to talk about how you can apply the concepts discussed on your projects!
11:00 – 11:15 am	Break
11:15 am – 12:00 pm “Factors Influencing IT PM Success”	Rita Anderson &amp; Lorraine Lee, USC Members of SCOPE have participated in a research project to determine the factors that most influence project management success. This presentation will present the findings of that study and discuss our next steps!
12:00 – 12:15	SCOPE Update – Lisa Phipps, SC.GMIS 1st VP and SCOPE Chairperson
12:15 – 12:45	Lunch
12:45 – 1:00 pm	SC.GMIS Update – Dan Furlong, SC.GMIS President
1:00 – 2:00 “Remembering 9/11 as a Project”	Bill Deck, National Law Enforcement and Corrections Technology Center Where were you on September 11, 2001? Bill is a Project Manager with the National Law Enforcement and Corrections Technology, where he was tasked to lead many of the cleanup efforts in NYC after 9/11. Hear innovative techniques that were used, how chaos was managed, and how like all good projects it came down to managing resources. An emotional and interesting discussion of project management from a new angle.
2:00 – 3:00 pm “Moving PM from Concept to Reality”	Panel Discussion, Jocelyn Caldwell, Mike Garon, Rita Anderson, Janet Claggett, Don Kennedy This panel discussion will focus on how these agencies use project management effectively, and how they were able to shift project management from just a good idea to an integral part of their culture.
3:00 – 3:15 “How PMI Can Help You Grow!”	Brandon Manus, President, PMI Charleston Brandon will talk about the many benefits of belonging to, and participating in, your local PMI chapter.

Attention PMPs: You will earn 6 PDUs (Category 4) at this conference!
They don't come any cheaper, or any better, than this!